

EMINA

A white Benetti yacht named Emina is shown from a side profile, sailing on a blue ocean under a blue sky with scattered clouds. The yacht features a modern design with large windows, a radar scanner on the upper deck, and a swim platform at the stern. The name 'Emina' is visible on the side of the cabin.

WELCOME ON BOARD

Built in 2014, EMINA is a 42-metre Benetti Veloce 140 combining Italian craftsmanship with the performance advantages of Benetti's patented D2P hull. Developed to offer efficient displacement cruising alongside higher-speed capability, her semi-displacement design is powered by twin 3,460 hp MTU engines, delivering a cruising speed of 16 knots and a maximum speed of 24 knots.

UPPER DECK AFT

Beyond her performance, EMINA benefits from substantial recent technical investment, including QL3 servicing of her main engines, rebuilt generators, upgraded power conversion equipment and extensive electrical system replacement. Her 10-year RINA class survey has also been completed, adding to her appeal as a well-specified Benetti with significant machinery works already undertaken.

INTERIORS

Designed by Redman Whiteley Dixon, with contributions from João Armentano, EMINA's interiors combine contemporary styling with a carefully balanced palette of light wood finishes, neutral upholstery and darker accents. Large windows bring natural light into the main salon, where generous lounge seating and a dedicated dining area create distinct spaces for relaxation and time with friends.

The upper deck offers a separate sky lounge with additional seating and entertainment facilities, providing a more informal setting away from the main salon. Throughout the yacht, the combination of soft textures, clean architectural lines and carefully selected furnishings creates a refined yet welcoming interior.

ACCOMMODATION

EMINA accommodates up to 12 guests across six staterooms, including a full-beam Owner's suite on the main deck. A distinctive feature of the suite is its private starboard-side balcony, providing direct access to the outdoors and an additional private space overlooking the water.
